

Alma Mater

Oh, Sudan High,
We give to you our praise;
Our goal to be
Add honor to your name,
If we win or lose,
We will ever choose,
And our motto we'll proclaim,
For the Black and Gold
May our strength unfold,
And truth shall be
Our highest aim,
Through work or play
We pledge this day
Forever stand behind
The Black and Gold;
Forever stand behind
The Black and Gold.

Two young people gazing into the sky, a sky limited only by their own view. Similarly, the accomplishments of young people are limited by their own dreams, aspirations, and ideas. Learning enables people to let their hopes and thoughts expand infinitely. This ability to free one's thoughts and let them travel through the realms of infinity keeps one forever young-at-heart, and it is the young-in-heart who truly enjoy life. For this reason we have chosen as the theme of the '63 HORNET, "INFINITY."

Presentation

We of the '63 Annual Staff present to you, the students, faculty, and administration of Sudan High School, the '63 HORNET. We hope that, by preserving a few of your fondest memories and greatest dreams, this annual will serve you as an encouragement to remain forever youthful.

In Appreciation

Many times we find that those not in the spotlight are the people upon whom we depend the most greatly. Such a person was Mr. Albert Gentry. Janitor in Sudan Schools from 1958 until his death in 1961, he worked diligently in caring for the school and property which Sudan students cherish so much. It is for this reason that we, the Annual Staff, dedicate the 1963 HORNET to Mr. Gentry.

ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

Dear Students:

There are few years in one's life that are as impressive as those spent in high school. The school annual helps to preserve happy moments and fond memories of those days.

In years to come, I hope you can glance back through this annual and think of your high school days as happy days; think of this particular year as one of your best in academic accomplishments; and, finally, be thankful for opportunities made possible by the community in which you live.

I wish for each of you happiness and success in the journey ahead.

Sincerely,

W. E. Hancock
W. E. Hancock
Superintendent

Dear Students:

We are living in a world that tries men's souls. Our future and the future of our nation rests with you who are students of today. Each of you as an individual should prepare yourself, so that when the time comes, you will be able to make wise and just decisions. Prepare yourself, so that the course you follow will be to the best interest of fellow Americans. Remember, your life must be lived by you, and your responsibilities met by you. Prepare yourself, so that you as a citizen can meet your obligations as a good American.

Sincerely yours,

Ralph W. Stewart
Ralph W. Stewart
High School Principal

Students:

Life holds many opportunities for the young person of today, probably more than at any other period in our history. There are also many problems which you will be required to face. The wisdom you use in solving these problems will depend to a large extent upon the training you have received as you face the challenges presented each day. I hope you will avail yourself of every opportunity which will make yours a happy, useful life.

My best wishes,

Bernard M. Wilson
