

Sudan ISD Translation Service Procedures

SUDAN INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Sudan Independent School District does not discriminate in educational programs, activities, or employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion or disability.

Year after year, the need to communicate with parents becomes more self-evident. We all know how valuable the involvement of parents can be in our schools. When our students see their parents interested in coming to school, volunteering to help with PTA activities, or asking teachers how they are doing academically, it helps them to see the importance of their education. Communication is an important key to parental involvement and engagement. Translation services provide the parents with the educational opportunity to be more fully involved in their child's educational experience.

Parents and/or guardians who need translation of a document into a language that is understandable, beyond what is already provided by the district and campus, should contact the administrator of the campus their student attends to request accommodations to meet their needs. Translation, which can include language or hearing-impaired services may be made available as warranted.

Translation Services

Written documents should be translated for a home in which no parent or guardian reads English where practicable. Whenever possible the English copy should be on one side of the paper and the translation on the other side. Items that should be considered for translation are classroom and school documents that need a parent response or that a parent has a right to know. Examples may include:

- Manuals, brochures and flyers
- Newsletters, News Releases
- Student Handbook/Code of Conduct
- Report Card Narratives
- Meeting Handouts
- Instruction for special homework projects that need parent monitoring or input (no curriculum or copywrited material unless the proper permissions have been obtained)
- Classroom needs-requests to volunteer, lists of needs for celebrations, etc.
- Parent Letters or forms that need parent signatures
- Health Information
- Discipline letters
- Student/parent surveys
- Course selection forms, registration materials

Guidelines for Translation Requests

- Requests will only be accepted electronically.
- Work will be done in Word, Power point, or Excel format and will be returned in the same format.
- Send the FINAL version of your document only. Drafts will not be accepted.
- A minimum of 10 working days lead time is requested on most projects. Allow at least 6 working days for translations up to 5 pages. Longer documents could take from 2 to 4 weeks depending on the translator's workload at the time and on the complexity and length of the translation.
- Submit ONLY editable and unlocked formats. NO PDFs.
- Art work, certain captions, pictures, PDFs and other pieces that cannot be edited are not the responsibility of the translator.
- If the document is a brochure, please send just the text, as it is sometimes difficult to fit the translation into reduced spaces. You may then copy/paste the translation onto your brochure using the font size/style of your choice.
- Except in rare cases, and as a general rule, it will not be possible to comply with translation requests the same day or overnight.
- Translations will be prioritized. District and school-wide documents take priority over individual classroom or grade level projects.
- If the requested service is a revision of a previously translated document, attach a copy of the last version in Spanish and the final version in English with any changes highlighted, an electronic file showing tracked changes, a list of the edits, etc.
- We do not translate third party documents.
- If you have questions, please contact your campus principal.
