Ag Boys Entertain

The annual F.F.A. Father-Son Banquet was held last Friday night, in the Ag room. There were sixty-six present, including twenty-five members of the local chapter. Mr. Morning, Mr. Burkes, and members of the School Board of Trustees, were the guests of the Chapter. The opening ceremony was given by the Chapter Officers, followed by the Invocation by Rev. Walker. The meal consisted of fried chicken, hot rolls, gravy, English peas, mashed potatoes, cole slaw, butter, pecan pie and whipped cream, coffee, and milk.

The F.F.A. string band played "Under The Double Eagle" and "Sioux City Sue", following the meal. The welcome to the Fathers and guests was given by Joe Hall, and Mr. Salem gave the response. Mr. Chance introduced the guests. Each F.F.A. member introduced himself and his father. The string band played "Boogie Woogie" and "Steel Guitar Rag". The toastmaster and president of the chapter, Clois Dean Wiseman, introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Orbin M. Turner, pastor of First Methodist Church Littlefield. He held the attention of all present throughout his twenty minute talk, through his humor and logic given. The closing ceremony was given by chapter officers and the Benediction by Rev. Walker.

The chapter is indeed grateful to Mrs. May and her Home Ec. girls for preparing and serving a very delicious meal.

THE BUZZER

Yvonne, Bobby, Billy Joyce, and Buzzy sure seemed to like the scenery of the football stadium Sat. night about 12:30. And I hear tell the girls at Amhearst worried about Bobby's date last Sat.....Why was Waymon so disgusted Sunday afternoon outside the Church. Could it be that you were waitin "at the Church" for Pill and she was waiting late....It seems that Jr. Editor is beaming all over school now days. First it was J.W. Jones last Thurs. then Robert on Monday, and I hear that seh just loves to get articles from Bob Salem....Say, Pope you keep me plenty busy now, too.
 First you tell Peggy's big sis that if Peg won't go with you, she will have tp. Well, I see Peggy finally gave in again. It seems the best hold was Jean Shirley on Monday in the S.H. and up and down the halls.
 Oh yes, I nearly forgot about Fannie--I hear it was sometime last week; but can't find out just what night you went with her.....
 Pickett, we noticed a certain gleam in your eye when Pinky was dated with Christine on that Sub*Deb party.
 To say nothing of that gleam from Joy's and Davy's eye. Say you know what--I think they make a cute couple, don't you?...That Maurine Olds, again; she was really telling Bill Tucker something in the show Sat. Nite and it must have been interesting the way Bill was listening....My my, how things do get around. Now I see in my notes where Edna and Sap were driving around after the Sub-deb party.

 Leland I'm sorry you had to wait in the drug store so long for your car. That makes Fannie, Edna, and Pickett in the car--if only I knew who the other boy was. (or was there another?)....Irene, I've held it long as I can, so I see You are stepping out now days.
 Folks have your car re-fueled at the Mission Service Station. Also I'd like to mention that Alta gets her car serviced there also now days--Oh I almost forgot to say that they have some boyfriends working there.....Bobby Jim doesn't look exactly happy this week (you know Leota is gone) But neither does Bill Nix....You know what, I heard I told stories--well maybe some small ones somtimes; but aren't they good ones? Bet you couldn't tell as good ones. Remember, it's the truth that hurts.....Waymon's pickup is beginning to look natural up at the Markham home these days.
 Well, well it looks like another steady has been added to the list.
 Annand T.C. finally made it, I see.
 I think they make a nice couple don't you? But by the way, what will happen about the prediction about Lyndol and Ann....I haven't heard anyhing good on Leland and Zanelle lately--wonder what has happened. Will someone please drop me a note in locker 20. And what was Leland doing up at Jonelle's house Saturday? And by the way, thanks for filling it this week, Remember only a few weeks left for me to write this and some people will be surprised at who I am...THE BUZZER

School Days

Chirping little birds in trees Whistle tuneful pleasantries;
But such joy is not for me-- I must grind to get my C.
Duty calls of various sorts, Midterms and long term reports;
I should seek a mood reportive, So I'll leave this poem abortive.

The volley-ball girls have chosen teams and are having a contest. Yvonne and Mary are captains of the teams; and so far, Yvonne's team has won 17 games and Mary's has won 14. The contest is scheduled to end this week, and the losing team will entertain the winners with a party.

The team reports that although they haven't had much of a volley-ball season, they have enjoyed playing and hope to get to play some more games before they quit for the year. The girls are looking forward to a letter and more prosperous year next term.
